I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

If you aim at nothing, you will hit it every time. – Zig Ziglar

Students will view videos, followed by class discussion at the approximately 90 minute meetings. For more information contact Carol Rees at (618) 402-9304.

Scots on the Go, February 20

If you don't think they build things like they used to, then you need to tour the American College of Building Arts in Charleston. Located at 649 Meeting Street, their students study the humanistic traditions like architecture, history and English; practical skills like math, foreign languages, and science; and creative skills like drawing and drafting. Taken together, these disciplines develop the creative thinking and problem-solving skills that great artisans need.

You can find ACBA graduates working at Mount Vernon, Williamsburg, Notre Dame, Italy, and any place where they need people that can work on older great architectural sites. Join us for a tour and discussion with its President, Lt. Gen. (ret.) Colby M. Broadwater III.

John Witty serves as host this month. There is no charge for the tour, but there is a minimum of 6 and a maximum of 15 attendees. We will have lunch at Taco Boy after the tour. Scan the code to register.

Every donation will support those in our community who are in need of shelter, food, and compassion. This annual event started at Spring Valley Presbyterian Church in 1990 and since then has raised over 198 million in dollars and food to address hunger.
