†CALL TO WORSHIP

One: We gather for worship.

All: We gather tonight to tell the old, old story, a story of bitterness and betrayal, of despair, denial, and death.

One: We gather tonight to tell an even older story prepared before the world began, a story of love powerful enough to rewrite our endings with the promise of new life.

All: In the telling of the story, in the breaking of the bread, in the coming of the night, we draw near once more to Christ.

†HYMN

“When I Survey the Wondrous Cross”

Hymn No. 101

CALL TO CONFESSION (A pause for silent confession follows.)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

For every time you asked us to stay with you and we wandered away, forgive us. For every time we fell asleep on the job of being your disciples, forgive us. For every time we boasted of our loyalty, yet crept away, betrayed or denied you, forgive us. For every time we hear this story and think “I could do better,” and don’t, forgive us. For every time we meet your faithfulness with faithlessness, forgive us. God, your love for us is unfathomably deep, that you would take all our failures and still love us as your children. May we take the gift of your forgiveness, and share it with the world that you made and loved so much. Amen.
