†CALL TO WORSHIP

One: We come to worship God, who speaks from the cloud and calls us by name.

All: We come to listen to the voice that says, “This is my Son, the Beloved.”

One: We come not in haste, but to linger in reverent wonder at the grandeur of God in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

All: We come to witness God’s majesty, receive his truth, and walk in his way.

One: We praise the One who unveils divine glory not to satisfy our curiosity, but to transform us.

All: We lift our eyes, quiet our hearts, and worship the Lord our God.

†PROCESSIONAL HYMN

“Praise, My Soul, the King of Heaven”

Hymn No. 478

PRAYER OF ADORATION

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

CALL TO CONFESSION (A pause for silent confession follows.)

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Almighty and Everlasting God, you have revealed your glory in Jesus and told us to listen to him. Yet we confess that we are quick to speak and slow to listen. We rush ahead, trusting our plans more than your promises. Like Peter, we preserve comfort over costly obedience. Like the people at Sinai, we grow impatient and fashion substitutes for your presence. Forgive us, O God. Quiet our restless hearts and help us to listen. By your grace, restore us as those who follow, as those who trust, as those who live by every word from you. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, your Beloved Son, in whom you are well pleased. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

†GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen. Amen.

†CHILDREN’S HYMN

“Fairest Lord Jesus”

Fairest Lord Jesus, Ruler of all nature, O thou of God to earth come down, thee will I cherish, thee will I honor, thou, my soul's glory, joy, and crown.

Fair is the sunshine, fairer still the moonlight, and all the twinkling, starry host; Jesus shines brighter; Jesus shines purer, than all the angels heaven can boast.

THE RESPONSE TO THE WORD

†THE APOSTLES' CREED (unison)

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into Hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into Heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

WELCOME TO THE WASHINGTON LIGHT INFANTRY

Organized in 1807, the Washington Light Infantry (WLI) is one of the nation's oldest militia units. The citizens of Charleston, anticipating a second war with Britain, organized a number of volunteer corps, one of which was the Washington Light Infantry, and it alone survives.

The WLI was named in honor of George Washington, and his birthday, February 22, has been observed annually by the WLI with a military banquet. A Memorial Service for passed members is held the Sunday before February 22.

The Eutaw Flag was borne by another Washington, Colonel William Washington, who was a cousin of General George Washington. The origin of the flag is surrounded by a halo of romance. When on a hasty visit to his fiancée, Miss Jane Elliott, daughter of Colonel Charles Elliott, whose plantation home "Sandy Hill" was a large estate near Charleston, SC, he mentioned that he did not have a flag for his troop. Seizing her scissors, she cut from the end of a rich damask curtain this square of crimson silk saying, "Let this be your flag!" To Colonel Washington it was a gift without price. Not only was it to be a flag of his troop but it was a love token of fealty to her and loyalty to his country, and thereafter, until the close of the war, it waved in the forefront of every battle in which his command was engaged, including Cowpens and Eutaw Springs.

With the Sumter Guards of Charleston (1819), the WLI appoints officers to the Board of Field Officers of the Fourth Brigade of the South Carolina Militia. This Board, established in 1822, has owned its Marion Square drill field in Charleston since 1833.

On April 19, 1827, the widow of Colonel William Washington of the Revolution, assigned her husband's battle to the Washington Light Infantry. Today the flag is still preserved as the WLI's most precious relic.

In 1842, the Washington Light Infantry greatly assisted in the establishment of the South Carolina Military Academy (now known as The Citadel), and in 1843 relinquished the guard of the Citadel building to the new Cadet Corps.

The Washington Light Infantry has participated as a unit with honor and bravery in almost every major war this country has fought since 1807. Many members of the WLI are veterans of combat in Vietnam, Iraq, and Afghanistan.

Obedient to the authority of the State of South Carolina, when The American Civil War developed in 1861-65, the Washington Light Infantry formed themselves into three companies for the war. The total number of men enrolled was four hundred and fourteen, and at the close of the struggle its casualties numbered one hundred and fourteen killed, and many others maimed and scarred for life. Official records show frequent citations of acts of individual heroism and deeds of sublime courage on the part of the Washington Light Infantry officers and men.
